Subject No. 271.
Road from Alahalli to Basavanakadavu.

Summary of discussion.—It is prayed that a road may be constructed from Alahalli to Kaveri (Basavanakadavu).

Reply of Government.—The proposal will be referred to the Local Fund Board.

Subject No. 272.
Claim of Bangalore Municipality to Local Cess on Abkari.

Summary of discussion.—The Government may be pleased to reconsider the order declining to recognise the claim of the Bangalore City Municipality to the Local Cess levied on Abkari revenue.

Reply of Government.—The subject has already been decided in the negative after the fullest consideration possible.

Subject No. 273.
Modification of the Bangalore Municipal Election Rules.

Summary of discussion.—It is prayed that the election rules may be so modified as to make officials ineligible for election as Municipal Commissioners.

Reply of Government.—A general rule of this kind is undesirable at present.

Subject No. 274.
Marriage registers among Muhammadans.

Summary of discussion.—Marriage registers among Muhammadans are not properly maintained now. A Regulation is necessary to provide for the appointment of persons who may be authorized to keep such registers.

Reply of Government.—Such a Regulation would be very unpopular and is really not required.

Subject No. 275.
Modification of patta rules.

Summary of discussion.—The rules authorizing the transfer of pattas in favor of persons in possession should be so modified as to restrict their operation to applications based on Civil Court decrees or certificates.

Reply of Government.—The existing rules protect all interests and no change is necessary.

Subject No. 276.
(a) Revenue sales.

Summary of discussion.—(a) The present practice under which Amildars confirm sales below Rs. 50 should be discontinued, the Deputy Commissioners alone being authorized to confirm sales of all kinds irrespective of amount or value.

(b) Appeals from and complaints against Amildars.

(b) Appeals from, and complaints against, Amildars should lie direct to the Deputy Commissioner instead of to the Sub-Division Officer as at present.

Reply of Government.—These changes are undesirable and no reasonable ground for them is believed to exist.

Subject No. 277.
Collection of Condayam when it is less than a rupee.

Summary of discussion.—If Government demand is less than a rupee, the whole of it is now levied in the first khist. This being very hard on poor people, it is prayed that the existing rule be cancelled and that Patels and Shanbhogs be empowered to levy the demand in any one of the four khists.

Reply of Government.—Enquiry will be made as to the practice elsewhere.

Subject No. 278.
Notice fees to Shanbhogs.

Summary of discussion.—As Shanbhogs serve demand notices they may be paid the notice fee also.

Reply of Government.—No fees can be levied under the rules unless peons are employed for serving processes.

Subject No. 279.
Remission of process fees for current demand.

Summary of discussion.—No fee should be levied on account of the processes issued for the current demand of the year.

Reply of Government.—No remission necessary.

Subject No. 280.
Redistribution of service Inams.

Summary of discussion.—Totis, Talavars and Nirgantis have more Inams than Patels and Shanbhogs whose work is more onerous. A more equitable re-distribution of the Inams is solicited.

Reply of Government.—Change very inexpedient.

Subject No. 281.
Remission of Local Cess on assessed service Inams.

Summary of discussion.—The mirasi payable to Shanbhogs has been abolished and a small pay is now given to them. Some of their service Inam lands have been fully assessed. The Local Cess on the assessment of such lands may be remitted.

Reply of Government.—Not possible.

Subject No. 282.
Loom and house taxes on same property.

Summary of discussion.—It is prayed that either loom tax or house tax on same property may be abolished.

Reply of Government.—Noted for consideration.

Subject No. 283.
(a) Tasdik of Bannerghatta temple.
(b) Construction of chattram at Bannerghatta.

Summary of discussion.—(a) The tasdik allowed to the temple of Sri Champakadhamaswami at Bannerghatta is very small and should be increased; and (b) a chattram may be constructed there for the accommodation of travellers.

Reply of Government.—These are objects of private benefactions.

Subject No. 284.
Sale of usufruct of tamarind trees on village sites.

Summary of discussion.—In some places tamarind trees on village sites were included in the patta of raiyats who used to pay an assessment therefor. This year however they have been removed from such pattas and an order has been made that their usufruct should be sold annually. This is unfair to the raiyats concerned.

Reply of Government.—The Deputy Commissioner will enquire into and dispose of this matter upon individual complaints.

Subject No. 285.
Repairs of all tanks by Government.

Summary of discussion.—All tanks, whatever may be their atchkats, may be repaired by Government.

Reply of Government.—Vide Subject No. 196.

Subject No. 286.
Road from Kankanhalli to H. M's. Territories via Anekal.

Summary of discussion.—There is heavy traffic between Kankanhalli and Her Majesty's territories viâ Anekal and the absence of a direct road is much felt.

Reply of Government.—An estimate is under preparation.

Subject No. 287.
Road and Kalyani near Huskur.

Summary of discussion.—A road may be constructed from the 9th mile of the Bangalore-Salem road to the Huskur village for convenience of pilgrims, &c. The Kalyani to the west of that village should also be restored.
